Hon. Lewis A. Kaplan
Daniel Patrick Moynihan U.S. Courthouse

Courtroom 21B

Dear Hon. Kaplan:

This man should be jailed. His ability to fraud people with his computer skills should, never the less, inhibit him from ANY ACCESSIBILITY to a computer.

Being at his parents house inables him access to his parents' computers and phones. This is not a restriction at all. No slap on the hand for little rich boy. He should be jailed until October 2, 2023 scheduled trial.

You are right in your request or order to tighten the bail restrictions. I do not think they listened to you.

Just let the Sam Bankman-Fried's play at his parents house, while people suffer the losses he knowingly inflicted on people. This is ludicrous to allow him any access to a computer or phone.

How can some people do such unbelievable enormous financial crimes! Where are the other employees he can contact on the phone or by computer using a VPN. This is truly beyond the expectancy of the courts allowing such a decision with no CASH exchanged. (Put your house up. Come on.)

Other crypto currencies are doing well in the Market. People are suffering with their loss of money, but he gets to stay home with mom & dad.

Psychopaths are naturally irresponsible and not bound by rules or the law. Because no one made him follow the rules or bound by law by his precious self.
